

MIKE HUCKABEE

Dear Friend and Fellow American,

I know you are very busy, but I ask you - please - for the sake of America's future to do me the honor of reading my heartfelt, personal letter to you today.

Simply put, I believe America is facing a crisis today that is every bit as serious as any we have ever faced... and you are one of the few people in this nation who can help me. Please give me just a moment to explain..

As great as the threat is that you and I face from radical, Islamic terrorists who are determined to attack us from outside our borders, an even greater menace threatens to destroy us from the inside out.

That threat, my friend, has been gnawing away at the foundations of our great nation for nearly 50 years now, and it comes directly from the radical liberals right here in America..

... a re-energized Left here in our midst that is working harder than ever to drive out God and ALL MENTION of religious faith from America's public life.

I know you have already seen this happening in many ways over the years, but things have gotten so bad recently since Barack Obama became president and Nancy Pelosi became Speaker of the House that I simply had to sit down and share my thoughts directly with you.

It is my sad, urgent duty today to report that liberal attacks on faith are accelerating to a crisis point.

"Big Government" is threatening to silence true expressions of faith in American public life.

I'm sure you've followed the stories of how liberal judges have targeted our cherished "Pledge of Allegiance" because it contains the words "one nation, under God."

The atheist who brought the lawsuit to outlaw the motto "one nation under God" told The New York Times that he wanted to "ferret out all insidious uses of religion in daily life."

You and I have watched for years as liberals and atheists have systematically driven all Christmas-season nativity scenes from public squares all across America.

Prayer in schools is all but extinct... public school children are barred from singing Christmas carols... an invocation at a graduation ceremony is likely to generate a barrage of lawsuits from "offended" liberals and atheists.

My friend, if you are not sure that we are on the verge of a crisis, ask yourself these questions:

-  How long do you think it will be before the liberals and atheists are able to have the words "In God We Trust" stricken from our bills and coins?
-  How long before the atheists and the ACLU declare final victory in getting the entire "Pledge of Allegiance" banned from our schools?

Frankly, after nearly a half-century of orchestrated, intentional liberal attacks on faith in both the courts and our schools, it shocks me to see just how successful they have been.

Think about your own life for a moment. Fifty years ago, it would have been unthinkable - laughable! - for our parents and grandparents to be denied prayers at public events, have someone refuse to recite the Pledge of Allegiance, or to have some radical attack public celebrations of Christmas, Hanukkah or Easter.

Now, look how far down this road we have come. I am concerned that our children and grandchildren could inherit an America where ANY religious utterance is prohibited outside the walls of a private home or church, just because some liberal might be "offended!"

Our union-dominated schools have been driving God out of America's history.

Our liberal-leaning courts have been outlawing God in all aspects of our public lives.

And our left-dominated media has mercilessly portrayed believers as either frightening fanatics or idiotic simpletons.

You know in your heart that I am speaking the truth.

We have to fight back; and we have to fight back, beginning right now. This very moment.

Should we be surprised that - after 50 years of driving God from our schools, our history and our public lives - America is facing some of the most potentially devastating crises we have ever faced...

...an economy (driven by socialist schemes) on the brink of collapse, the threat of violent death by radical Islamist terrorists that grows every day, crime, abortions and drug use more rampant than ever?

I need your help today. I need you to stand with me and declare this truth:

America is an exceptional nation, created out of the providence of God, because of the prayers of people who, on their knees, begged for a place where they could be free and raise their children in faith.

I need you to stand with me and tell the liberals that our rights, liberty and prosperity come from God, not from their version of an all-controlling Big Government.

I need you to join me in the fight to win back our schools and our courts from the deep pockets of the ACLU.

And I need you to join a committed organization that is leading this fight - led by Newt Gingrich - so that you can be a part of this great struggle that we must win for our children and grandchildren.

That organization is called "Renewing American Leadership" (ReAL).

ReAL is a new national non-profit organization that is working with ministers and lawyers - who understand the value of religious expression - to do two important things:

1. Train a new generation of leaders who will defend our religious liberty in our schools and government;

2. Actively fight - in court - the radical leftists and atheists of the ACLU and their backers, who want to drive all religion out of American life - YOUR life!

If you believe as Newt Gingrich and I do, that the Founding Fathers fully intended for expressions of religious belief to be incorporated into American life, then I ask you to join in the fight to defend our values.

The stakes are immense; imagine a crippled, socialist, bleak, anti-God America. Is this the nation we want to bequeath to our children, or will you stand with Newt Gingrich and me and fight to preserve America as that "shining city on a hill, one nation, under God?"

Any support you can send to ReAL today is fully tax-deductible.

And as a personal "thank you" for your gift of $35 or more today, I will send you a copy of Newt's wonderful book, Rediscovering God in America.

Newt wrote this book as a rebuttal to those secular leftists who want to erase God from America's history.

Rediscovering God in America takes you on your own personal guided tour of our nation's most cherished buildings and monuments, and in example after example, shows how our Founders and previous generations understood the importance of religious expression.

I have reserved a copy of this fascinating and important book for you, and it is yours free for your gift of $35, $50, $100 or more to "Renewing American Leadership" (ReAL) today.

Newt and I have no substitute for your support today. Please let me hear back from you as soon as possible with your most generous contribution. Thank you, and God Bless You!

Yours, 'til this battle is won,

Mike Huckabee

P.S. The Obama-Pelosi liberals are turning up the heat on us even as we speak. Please help today with your crucial contribution to Renewing American Leadership!
